SENATOR MATZKE: Now, that technically is not an appeal, that's just a transfer from the small claims court jurisdiction to the county court jurisdiction.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So there are no appeals that are filed...the county court nor the separate juvenile court would be deemed an appellate court?

SENATOR MATZKE: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Since the Chair told me I only had one minute, I will give those few seconds left and then resume this next time I get to speak.

SENATOR CROSBY: I'm sorry, Senator Chambers. I'm...you still have five minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh.

SENATOR CROSBY: I beg your pardon. I am...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Well...

SENATOR CROSBY: I'm not with it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's all right, Senator, because I have something I want to say.

SENATOR CROSBY: You talk so much I never know if you're introducing or just talking about...on your five minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right. And now, Senator Crosby, that is what happens to me sometimes and I'll have to ask on a particular issue whether I've spoken the required...or the allowable number of times. But here's what I'm getting at. When language is drafted...and I didn't draft this language...they do not draft legislation well. It shows the contempt that they have for the Legislature. I opposed this stuff originally and the body didn't, and I want to say something about the way language is construed in statutes or just in the ordinary use of language. If I would say, two rows in front of me sit Senator Will,
